

JOIN IN TRIBUTE TO DANIEL BOONE

Memorial Dedicated in North Carolina to Famous Pioneer.

JUDGE PRITCHARD MAKES ADDRESS

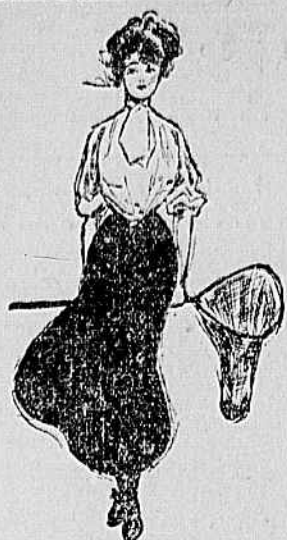

Replica of Boone Cabin Erected on Spot Where Intrepid Hunter and His Family Lived—Elaborate Program of Exercises Carried Out.

Salisbury, N. C., April 25.—To the memory of that famous pioneer, Daniel Boone, founder of the North Carolina and Kentucky wilderness, founder of Boonesborough, Ky., and central figure and hero in the many boyhood stories of Indian fighting and hunting tales, memorial services were held here today. These promise to become a Mecca for patriotic pilgrims.

On the historic spot where Boone spent nineteen years of his vigorous young manhood hunting and resisting the skulking redskins, patriotic North Carolinians have erected on the exact site of the old homestead, a few hundred yards from the Yadkin River, a new log cabin, a replica of the one occupied by the intrepid hunter and his family. Directly in front of the simple building stands a handsome shaft of native Roman granite, forming an Indian arrowhead, fifteen feet high, and mounted upon a massive base. Ornamenting this is a bronze tablet, bearing the name Daniel Boone, and the date of his residence in North Carolina. Both of these memorials were dedicated with appropriate ceremonies, in which many of the direct descendants of Boone, and a score of others, who bear of his relationship to the pioneer, participated.

Program of Exercises.
An elaborate program of exercises had been arranged for the event. J. R. McTear, president of the Daniel Boone Memorial Association, was master of ceremonies, and Governor William W. Kitchin presided. The chief addresses were delivered by Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, and Representative Page, of the Seventh North Carolina District.

The picturesque cabin which was dedicated today, the replica of the great pioneer that it contains, and the unique tablet designed to perpetuate his memory, are fruits of the work of the Daniel Boone Memorial Association, incorporated by the General Assembly of North Carolina in 1909. The association was created a corporation, "with power to hold lands, erect suitable memorials, collect historical materials and such other things as are necessary to perpetuate the memory of the life of Daniel Boone in North Carolina." association is composed of eleven men, of whom J. R. McTear, of Lexington, is chairman, and it is vested with the power to perpetuate itself.

Plans of the Association.
The memorial association has only begun its work. It intends to make of this beautiful and picturesque spot a Mecca for pilgrims from everywhere. It is about twelve miles from Lexington in one direction and an equal distance from Salisbury in the other.

The very spirit of the mighty hunter and hero seems to hover in the air itself, and echoes from the distant past can be heard in the rippling waters of the Yadkin, and in the sighing of the winds in the trees which surround the old homestead. One may linger here until he can remember his youth, and his imagination again run riot with visions of stealthy, painted Indians being slain by the unerring rifle of the "Great Long Knife," as Daniel Boone was known to them.

The first step toward the accomplishment of the work was the donation of five acres of land in Davidson county, twelve miles from Lexington, embracing the site of the Boone homestead and other points of interest made famous in the early history of the hunter. Citizens of Davidson county subscribed funds for the erection of a replica of the cabin in which Boone lived. Citizens of Rowan county (which was formed from Davidson county in 1822) gave the monument, and the Daughters of the American Revolution, of Salisbury, contributed the bronze tablet for the shaft.

Replica of Boone Homestead.
The memorial is a one-story, double-roomed log structure, with clay chimney and shelter, an exact replica of the homestead built by Boone about 1755. Housed within it are numerous precious relics, such as guns, hunting knives, powder horns and articles of clothing worn by the pioneer, as well as cooking utensils used by his family. The cabin reposes snugly in a grove of majestic oaks, tottering with age, and nearby the rippling waters of the Yadkin River, where the Boones did their fishing, dance over the rocks and under the shade of the overhanging trees. Not far distant, on the river bank, is Boone's Cave, or Devil's Den, which the family is presumed to have used as a retreat when pressed by skulking Indians. The surrounding grounds have been artistically laid out to make the spot attractive.

The exercises today took place on a temporary stand, erected near the cabin. The music was furnished by the Pilgrim Singing Band, augmented by a large choir from the Churchland School, while sixteen male students from the same school acted as marshals. Picnic dinner was served the visitors on the ground.

The significance of the selection of the date for the dedication lies in the fact that April 26 is the one hundred and sixtieth anniversary of the departure of the Boone family from Tucker county, Pa., for their new home on the banks of the Yadkin River, and the one hundred and forty-first anniversary of the departure of Daniel Boone from North Carolina for Kentucky.

Graves of Boone's Parents.
It is a little known fact that not many miles away, in old Koppa Cemetery, near Mocksville, Davie county, repose the remains of Daniel Boone's father and mother. The grave of Squire Boone is marked by a simple headstone, which has been inclosed in a steel cage to save it from relic hunters, which bears this literal inscription:

"Squire Boone departed this life in his sixty-ninth year of life in this year of our Lord 1765, Genesey the 2."

TRIBUTES ARE PAID TO WARGOVERNOR

Statue of Francis H. Pierpont Is Unveiled in Statuary Hall.

Washington, April 26.—Both Houses of Congress and the Commonwealth of West Virginia united today in paying tribute to the memory of Francis H. Pierpont, Union war Governor of Virginia, and a resident of that section of the Old Dominion that was carved into the State of West Virginia.

A marble statue of Pierpont, recently placed in the Hall of Fame at the Capitol, was formally presented to the national government today, with ceremonies held in the Statuary Hall, and with eulogies during the afternoon in the Senate and the House. In Statuary Hall, Chairman T. C. Miller, of the West Virginia statue commission, a former superintendent of schools of this State, tendered the statue to Governor Glasscock, who then formally presented the statue to the nation. The statue was unveiled by Miss Frances Pierpont Sivilier, a granddaughter of the statesman. Mrs. Sivilier also read a poem of tribute. Representative Woodard, of West Virginia, presided over the ceremony. In the Senate the program included speeches by Senators Elkins, Scott, Bolliver, Heyburn and Oliver, and in the House, by Representatives Sturgis and Hubbard, Kiefer, James and McCall. Governor Glasscock was accompanied to Washington by his entire staff.

Oyster Packers Elect Officers.
The Virginia Oyster Packers and Planters' Association have elected Frank W. Darling, of Hampton, president; William H. Hemingway, of Norfolk, vice-president; J. C. Robinson, of Hampton, secretary-treasurer; Louis F. Funderstein, of Alfred, N. Y., president; R. L. Marshall, of Chincoteague, Md., C. Armstrong, of Hampton, and G. W. Richardson, of West Point, executive committee.

Market Will Soon Close.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Chatham, Va., April 30.—The local tobacco market will close for the season on May 14, to reopen for the first offering of the crop of this year. W. E. Lea, of the firm of Tredway & Lea, proprietors of the Star Warehouse, left Friday with his family for Timmonsville, S. C., to make ready for handling the Southern crop. Tredway & Lea are associated in the warehouse business in Timmonsville.

The recent rains have lessened the complaint of scarcity of tobacco plants, but they are yet very small, and indications are that the crop will be planted late, and may be less than that of last year in acreage. The season's sale of tobacco is expected to be a record, and prices are very satisfactory.

STATE FAIR PROSPEROUS.

Report of Condition of Finances Issued by Secretary Fugate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., April 30.—The report of Secretary Joseph B. Fugate, of the operations and outcome of the North Carolina State Fair for 1909, just out in printed form, shows in connection with the report of Treasurer S. L. Rouse, that the fair netted $3,751.54. Of this amount $3,500 was used to wipe out a debt incurred by the fair for 1908, and $1,500.98 went for improvements in buildings and grounds, leaving on hand, $660.56.

A statement of the assets of the State Fair, presented by Secretary Fugate is interesting. It shows the following: Grounds, $25,000; floral hall, $7,500; grandstand, $7,000; race-track, $5,000; machinery hall, $3,000; horse stalls, $1,500; horse stables, $1,500; cattle stalls, $500; hog and sheep pens, $400; restaurant booth, $1,200; secretary and treasurer's offices, $700; keeper's house, $500; storage house, $300; ladies' dressing-room, $500; judges' stand, $400; stockade, $1,000; macadamized midway, $400; 6 per cent. note by Carolina Mills Company, $1,000; 6 per cent. note by Carolina Phosphate Company, $500. Total assets of the State Fair, $58,200. The liabilities consist of $25,500 6 per cent. bonded debt, maturing in 1925, and bills payable about $1,000, leaving net assets of $31,700.

More Than 12,000 Men Involved in Demand for More Money.

Schenectady, N. Y., April 30.—The machinists, in the number of about 2,000, employed at the local works of the General Electric Company, have demanding an increase in wages. The management has offered an advance, but not as much as was asked. The other departments are following the lead of the machinists, and threats of a strike are heard. The situation is considered acute and a satisfactory compromise is expected. There are over 12,000 men employed at the plant here.
